UNIT 1: The American Dream

Activity
1.1 Previewing the Unit ......................................................................................................................... 4
1.2 Defining a Word, Idea or Concept .................................................................................................. 5
1.3 America’s Promise .......................................................................................................................... 8
   Poetry: “The New Colossus,” by Emma Lazarus
   Speech: President Roosevelt’s Address at Statue of Liberty Celebration
1.4 America’s Voices ............................................................................................................................... 12
   Poetry: “I Hear America Singing,” by Walt Whitman; “I, Too, Sing America,” by Langston Hughes
   Poetry: “America” by Claude McKay
1.5 Fulfilling the Promise ....................................................................................................................... 16
   Short Story: “America and I,” by Anzia Yezierska
1.6 Defining an American ....................................................................................................................... 27
   Letter: “What is an American?” from Letters from an American Farmer by Hector St. Jean de Crevecoeur
1.7 A Hyphenated American ................................................................................................................ 32
   Essay: “Growing Up Asian” by Kesaya E. Noda
1.8 Researching Images of America ..................................................................................................... 37
   Poetry: “Let America Be America Again” by Langston Hughes
1.9 What Is Freedom? ............................................................................................................................. 43
   Speech: “The Four Freedoms,” by President Franklin Delano Roosevelt
   Historical Document: The Preamble to the Constitution of the United States
   Historical Document: The Bill of Rights
1.10 Strategies for Defining Freedom .................................................................................................... 48

Embedded Assessment 1: Writing a Definition Essay ........................................................................ 51
1.11 Previewing Embedded Assessment 2 and Synthesizing Ideas ........................................................ 53
1.12 Annotating an Argumentative Text .............................................................................................. 55
   Argumentative Essay: “Is the American Dream Still Possible?” by David Wallechinsky
1.13 The Structure of an Argument ....................................................................................................... 59
   Historical Document: Declaration of Independence
1.14 Coming for the American Dream .................................................................................................... 64
   Poetry: “Ellis Island,” by Joseph Bruchac
   Poetry: “On Being Brought from Africa to America,” by Phillis Wheatley
   Poetry: “Europe and America,” by David Ignatow
1.15 Money and the American Dream ..................................................................................................... 68
   Poetry: “Money,” by Dana Gioia
   Drama: Excerpt from A Raisin in the Sun, by Lorraine Hansberry
1.16 Working Toward the Dream ............................................................................................................ 73
   Nonfiction: Excerpt from Working, “Roberto Acuna Talks About Farm Workers,” by Studs Terkel
1.17 The Road to Success ....................................................................................................................... 78
   Speech: Excerpt from 2004 Democratic National Convention Keynote, by Barack Obama
1.21 American Dream: Real or Imagined? Structured Academic Controversy ..................................... 84

Embedded Assessment 2: Synthesizing the American Dream ............................................................ 87
UNIT 2: The Power of Persuasion

Activity

2.1 Previewing the Unit ........................................................................................................................... 92
2.2 Preparing to Read The Crucible: Setting Context ........................................................................... 93

Sermon "Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God," by Jonathan Edwards
Historical Document: The New England Primer
Essay: "The Trial of Martha Carrier," by Cotton Mather
Article: "The Lessons of Salem," by Laura Shapiro

2.3 Salem Society: Meet the Characters ............................................................................................. 101

*Drama: The Crucible (Act One) by Arthur Miller (Act One also used for Activities 2.4-2.6 and 2.8)

2.4 The Beginnings of Characterization .............................................................................................. 105
2.5 Pivotal Scene 1: Considering Interpretations ............................................................................... 107
2.6 Analyzing the Elements of a Script .............................................................................................. 109
2.7 Illuminating Hysteria: Characters, Conflict, and Social Commentary ......................................... 110

Article: Excerpt from "The Lessons of Salem," by Laura Shapiro
Fable: "The Very Proper Gander," by James Thurber

2.8 Conflicts in Salem ......................................................................................................................... 113
2.9 Speaking like a Puritan ................................................................................................................ 115

*Drama: The Crucible (Act Two) by Arthur Miller (Act Two also used in 2.10 and 2.11)

2.10 Rising Action .............................................................................................................................. 117
2.11 Pivotal Scene 2: Proctor and Elizabeth ...................................................................................... 119
2.12 Courtroom Drama: Evidence and Confession ........................................................................... 122

*Drama: The Crucible (Act Three) by Arthur Miller (Act Three also used in 2.13 and 2.16)

2.13 The Role of Irony in Climax ....................................................................................................... 124
2.14 Speaking Out ............................................................................................................................... 126

Speech: Excerpt from "A Declaration of Conscience," by Margaret Chase Smith
Essay: Why I Wrote The Crucible: An Artist’s Answer to Politics," by Arthur Miller

2.15 Integrity Rises to the Top: Writing Dialogue............................................................................... 136

Drama: Excerpts from The Crucible, by Arthur Miller

2.16 Comparing Interpretation, Arriving at Conclusions ................................................................. 139

*Film: *The Crucible

2.17 Timed Writing........................................................................................................................... 141
2.18 Contemporary Conflicts ............................................................................................................. 142

*Drama: The Crucible (Act Four), by Arthur Miller

Embedded Assessment 1: Creating and Performing a Dramatic Scene ........................................... 144

2.19 Previewing Embedded Assessment 2 and Speaking Skills ...................................................... 146
2.20 American Rhetoric: Historical Context ....................................................................................... 148

Speech: "Second Inaugural Address," by Abraham Lincoln

2.21 The Power of Rhetoric .............................................................................................................. 151

Speech: "Speech to the Virginia Convention," by Patrick Henry

2.22 The Appeal of Rhetoric ............................................................................................................. 155

Speech: "The Gettysburg Address," by Abraham Lincoln

2.23 Planning the Delivery ............................................................................................................... 157

Speech: "First Inaugural Address," by Franklin D. Roosevelt

2.24 One Last Stand with Syntax .................................................................................................... 160

Speech "Inaugural Address," by John F. Kennedy

2.25 Vocal Delivery .......................................................................................................................... 165

*Speech "9/11 Address to the Nation," by George W. Bush
*Speech: "President-Elect Victory Speech," by Barack Obama

Embedded Assessment 2: Writing and Presenting a Persuasive Speech ........................................ 167
UNIT 3: American Forums: The Marketplace of Ideas

Activity

3.1 Previewing the Unit ................................................................. 172
3.2 Rights and Responsibility ........................................................ 173
  Historical Document: First Amendment to the United States Constitution
  Informational Text: "The Role of Media in a Democracy," by George A. Krimsky
3.3 Introducing the Media .............................................................. 179
3.4 Independent Reading: Newspapers ............................................ 181
3.5 The Newspaper Debate .......................................................... 183
3.6 News or Views: A Closer Look .................................................. 189
  Article: "Facebook Photos Sting Minnesota High School Students"
  Article: "Federal Way Schools Restrict Gore Film"
3.7 The Bias of Rhetoric ................................................................. 195
3.8 Fair and Balanced ................................................................. 197
  Editorial: "Abolish High School Football!" by Raymond Schroth
3.9 How to Read an Editorial .......................................................... 200
  Editorial: "Facing Consequences at Eden Praire High" from Minneapolis/St Paul Star Tribune
3.10 How to Write an Editorial .......................................................... 204
  Editorial: "Time to raise the bar in high schools," by Jack O’Connell
  Editorial: "New Michigan Graduation Requirements Shortchange Many Students," by Nick Thomas
3.11 Where’s Your Proof? ............................................................. 210
3.12 Reading and Writing a Letter to the Editor ................................ 212
  Editorial: "Why I Hate Cell Phones," by Sara Reihani
3.13 Fallacies 101 ................................................................. 216
3.14 How to Read and Write an Editorial Cartoon ......................... 219
  Informational Text: "An Inside Look at Editorial Cartoons," by Bill Brennen
  *Sample Editorial Cartoons

Embedded Assessment 1: Creating an Op-Ed News Project ............... 223
3.15 Previewing Embedded Assessment 2 and Introducing Satire .......... 225
3.16 Identifying the Elements of Satire ............................................ 227
  Satire: "Let’s Hear It for the Cheerleaders," by David Bouchier
3.17 The Satirical Spectrum .......................................................... 231
  *Sample Editorial Cartoons
3.18 The Tone of Satire ............................................................... 233
  Satire: "Girl Moved to Tears by Of Mice and Men Cliff Notes," from The Onion
3.19 Writing a Parody ................................................................. 235
  Parody: "In Depth but Shallowly," by Dave Barry
3.20 Need Some Advice? .............................................................. 239
  Satire: "Advice to Youth," by Mark Twain
3.21 Twain in Twain ................................................................. 243
  Satire: "The War Prayer," by Mark Twain
3.22 The Satirical Critique ............................................................ 246
  Satire: "Gambling in Schools," by Howard Mohr
  Satire: "How to Poison the Earth," by Linnea Saukko

Embedded Assessment 2: Writing a Satirical Piece ......................... 251
Unit 4: The Pursuit of Happiness

Activity

4.1 Previewing the Unit ................................................................. 256
4.2 Searching for Meaning ............................................................ 257
Essay: from Self-Reliance, by Ralph Waldo Emerson
Essay: from Walden, by Henry David Thoreau
4.3 Re-Searching for Meaning ....................................................... 265
4.4 Linking the Past to the Present .................................................. 266
Poetry: “In the Depths of Solitude,” by Tupac;
Poetry: “Remember” by Joy Harjo
Poetry: “A Light Exists in Spring,” by Emily Dickinson
4.5 Another Transcendental View ................................................... 269
Art: The Oxbow by Thomas Cole
Art: Kindred Spirits by Asher Durand
4.6 Drafting My Credo ..................................................................... 271
Nonfiction: Credo from “All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten,” by Robert Fulghum
4.7 Writer’s Craft: Revising My Credo .............................................. 274
4.8 Framing the Subject ................................................................. 276
Biography: “Author’s Note” from Into the Wild, by Jon Krakauer
4.9 Meeting Christopher McCandless ............................................. 279
*Biography: Into the Wild, by Jon Krakauer
4.10 Literary Connection ................................................................. 281
*Biography: Into the Wild, by Jon Krakauer
4.11 Shedding Light ...................................................................... 283
*Biography: Into the Wild, by Jon Krakauer
4.12 Meaning Through Structure ................................................... 285
*Biography: Into the Wild, by Jon Krakauer
4.13 A Personal Perspective ............................................................ 287
Biography: Excerpt from Into the Wild, by Jon Krakauer
4.14 Writer’s Craft: A personal Perspective on Style ......................... 291
4.15 Reflecting on Life Experiences ................................................ 293
Essay: “A View from Mount Ritter,” by Joseph T. O’Connor
4.16 Making Your Choice ............................................................... 297

Embedded Assessment 1: Writing a Personal Essay .......................... 299
4.17 Previewing Embedded Assessment 2 and Style ............................ 301
*Biography: Chapters 16-17 from Into the Wild, by Jon Krakauer
4.18 Searching for the Author ........................................................ 303
*Biography: Chapter 18 from Into the Wild, by Jon Krakauer
4.19 Many Ways of Showing .......................................................... 304
*Biography: Chapter 18 from Into the Wild, by Jon Krakauer
4.20 Nuts and Bolts of the Multi-Genre Research Project ....................... 307
Multi-Genre Research Project: Student Sample
4.21 Exploring, Recording, and Imagining Research .......................... 325
4.22 Melding Facts, Interpretation, and Imagination ......................... 328
4.23 Meeting in the Middle ............................................................. 333
4.24 Thematic Threads to Create Flow ............................................. 335
4.25 Organizing the Multi-Genre Research Paper ............................ 337

Embedded Assessment 2: Writing a Multi-Genre Research Project ............ 339

©2014 The College Board. All rights reserved. SpringBoard English Language Arts – Grade 11
Unit 5: An American Journey

Activity

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Activity</th>
<th>Pages</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5.1 Previewing the Unit</td>
<td>344</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2 Developing Research Questions</td>
<td>345</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Informational Text: “The Harlem Renaissance, adapted from The 1920s, by Kathleen Drowne and Patrick Huber</td>
<td>349</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.3 The Historical Context of the Harlem Renaissance</td>
<td>349</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Documentary Film: Clips from Zora Neale Hurston: Jump at the Sun</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Informational Text: Excerpt from “Introduction to The New Negro,” by Alain Locke</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Poetry: “Usward,” by Gwendolyn B. Bennett</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Poetry: “Lift Every Voice and Sing,” by James Weldon Johnson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Literary Criticism: Excerpt from “On ‘From the Dark Tower,’” by Eugenia W. Collier</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.4 Synthesizing Facts, Interpretation, and Media Formats</td>
<td>359</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.5 Documenting Your Sources</td>
<td>362</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.6 Finalizing Research</td>
<td>364</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Embedded Assessment 1: Presenting a Literary Movement: The Harlem Renaissance</td>
<td>366</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.7 Previewing Embedded Assessment 2</td>
<td>368</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.8 “A Unity of Opposites”</td>
<td>369</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Essay: “How It Feels to Be Colored Me,” by Zora Neale Hurston</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.9 Dialect in Language</td>
<td>374</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Short Story: “Sweat,” by Zora Neale Hurston</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.10 Janie’s Return Home</td>
<td>385</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Novel: Excerpt from Their Eyes Were Watching God, by Zora Neale Hurston</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.11 Nanny’s Life</td>
<td>388</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Poetry: “Mother to Son,” by Langston Hughes</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Novel: Their Eyes Were Watching God, by Zora Neale Hurston</td>
<td>392</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.12 Nanny, Janie, and Logan</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Novel: Their Eyes Were Watching God, by Zora Neale Hurston</td>
<td>394</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.13 Janie’s New Life</td>
<td>398</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Novel: Their Eyes Were Watching God, by Zora Neale Hurston</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.14 Janie’s “Route of Tradition”</td>
<td>402</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Novel: Their Eyes Were Watching God, by Zora Neale Hurston</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.15 Discussion Groups</td>
<td>404</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Novel: Their Eyes Were Watching God, by Zora Neale Hurston</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.16 The End of a Long Journey</td>
<td>405</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Novel: Their Eyes Were Watching God, by Zora Neale Hurston</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.17 Reviewing the Reviews</td>
<td>408</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Informational Texts: Excerpts from critical reviews</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.18 Oprah Winfrey Presents</td>
<td>411</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Film: Their Eyes Were Watching God, directed by Darnell Martin</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Texts not included in these materials.